

SPECIAL EDITION

View this email in your browser

We bid farewell to Commissioners and CEO

The South African Human Rights Commission (Commission) recently bid farewell to the Chairperson Adv Lourence Mushwana, Commissioner Lindiwe Mokate, Commissioner Danny Titus, Commissioner Bokankatla Malatji and CEO Lindiwe Khumalo. The event provided an opportunity for Commissioners and CEO to reflect on their work. Below are pictures and messages from the outgoing Commissioners and CEO.

Staff gather to bid farewell to Commissioners and CEO

CHAIRPERSON ADV LOURENCE MUSHWANA

Click here to access the video message

COMMISSIONER LINDIWE MOKATE

Click here to access the video message

COMMISSIONER DANNY TITUS

Click here to access the video message

COMMISSIONER BOKANKATLA MALAJI

Commissioner Malatji started his farewell message by singing a song Tsohle di entsweke wena (All things were done by you 'God') before thanking staff for providing support to his office. He further indicated that even if he doesn't come back people can still call him for advise on issues of disability and older persons.

CEO LINDIWE KHUMALO

Click here to access the video message

Commissioner Mohamed Ameerma thanked the departing Commissioners and CEO for their contribution to the realisation of human rights. Commissioner indicated that he believes in the abilities of staff to continue defending the rights of the defenseless. Click here for the video message.

Copyright © South African Human Rights Commission 2016, All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:
Forum 3 Braampark Offices,
33 Hoofd Street,
Braamfontein, 2017